 Meeting Minutes

In Attendance: Laurie Williams, Charlotte Dumford, Jason Tice, Angie DePuydt, and John Dumford

Meeting called to order at 6:00 p.m. CST by Mr. Dumford.

Mr. Dumford noted that Annette Carpenter could not attend the meeting because she was in the emergency room, and Heather Bonser-Blaylock could not attend because her internet was out.

Mr. Dumford first noted that the following articles were ready for the current issue:

1. Equine dentistry
2. My first Friesian
3. Warning signs' effectiveness article
4. Craniosacral part 2
5. Weaning practices
6. Senior Friesian horses

Ms. DePuydt said she could do an article on circadian Rhythms and suggested soliciting Equi-illum, a mask manufacturer, to advertise in the magazine. The committee agreed.

Mr. Dumford asked about advertising, and Ms. Williams said there are not many advertisements for the current issue.

Mr. Dumford suggested that the committee needed a separate meeting to discuss the Special Edition as well as a regular meeting to discuss the next issue of the magazine. The committee agreed.

Regarding the Special Edition, Mr. Dumford suggested using the following articles:

History of FHANA	Laurie & ?
Future FHANA (Apr 21)	Maria Link
Training for Sport Predicate in Dressage	Alana Bent
Do Your Homework	Lisa Baker
Preparing a Foal for Inspection (Apr 21)
Horses to Fly (Jan 21)
Friesians in Movies	Heather
Making Confident Foals (Jan 21)

Our Journey with the Friesian Breed	Marion Troyer
Keuring Preperation (Jul 20)
Friesian Judging 101	Angie DePuydt
FHANA 101	Jason
So You Want to Buy a Friesian Horse
Selecting a Friesian for Dressage
Selecting a Friesian for Driving
Registry Comparison	Scott Kelnhofer

The committee also discussed with approval the idea of having a “best of” Let’s Friesian photo spread in the Special Edition.

Mr. Dumford noted that articles for the Special Edition are due October 15, and advertisements are due November 1. Mr. Tice said advertisements are still few in number, and the committee discussed calling past advertisers to solicit more advertisements. Mr. Tice said he would provide a spreadsheet showing past advertisers for this purpose.

Ms. Williams suggested that calling the special edition the “special edition” is too ambiguous and does not convey it purpose. After some discussion, the committee settled on calling the issue the FHANA Resource Book and compared it to the FHANA member directory that has not been reprinted for more than ten years.

The committee scheduled the following meetings by Zoom:

FHANA Resource Book meeting: August 19, 2021

Meeting for next issue: September 16, 2021
